ENLARGES ATTACK ON LAW

SUPREME COURT JUDGE IN NEW YORK PERMITS ADDITIONS TO PETITION.

Fourteen New Petitioners Join with Former Applicants for Setting Aside of Apportionment Act and Incidentally Hart-Agnew Law.

New York, November 21.—Justice Edward B. Amund, sitting in Part 2 of the Supreme Court, granted on Saturday the application of fourteen petitioners to become parties to the action recently instituted to overthrow the 1907 apportionment act of Senate and Assembly districts.

This act has been attacked on the ground of its unconstitutionality and six other grounds, and an order to show cause why it should not be set aside was served last week on Attorney General E. K. O'Malley, Governor Horace White, Speaker Wadsworth, of the Assembly, and George H. Cobb, president pro tem of the Senate.

Briefs in reply to the argument petition will be filed in the Supreme Court next Wednesday. Nullification of the apportionment act will mean the knocking out of the Hart-Agnew anti-race track bills and other legislation framed through under the Hughes lash, without more than passing regard for constitutionality. The principal contention is that the apportionment was made at an extraordinary session of the Legislature, whereas the constitution makes it mandatory that an apportionment act be passed only at a regular session.

Enlargement of the action to include fourteen other petitioners was accomplished through Frank J. Johnston, attorney for William S. Reynolds, principal petitioner in the original action and now representing each of the newcomers. The new petitioners are:

Edward M. Henry, of Pleasantville, Westchester County; president of the Compass Publishing Company and editor of the Mount Pleasant Compass. During the last election he was chairman of the speakers and public meetings of the Democratic county committee of Westchester.

Howard F. Carpenter, of Port Chester, Westchester County, director and secretary of the Port Chester Publishing Company, publishers of the Port Chester Daily Record. During the last election he was chairman of the press committee of the Westchester Democratic organization.

Col. George Hochderfer, of 615 Sherman street, Richmond Hill, for the last twenty-five years a resident of Arizona, and who came to New York to become a resident two weeks ago and consequently comes under the constitution of this state for the first time. He has held the offices of city marshal of Flagstaff, Arizona; treasurer of Flagstaff; sheriff of Coconino County, Arizona; sergeant-at-arms of the Arizona Legislature, and a member of the territorial council.

Elliott A. Haaseman, 148 West Sixty-fourth street, Borough of Manhattan, who came to this city from Philadelphia last year. He is an art broker and appraiser of art goods.

William Stewart, 236 West Forty-seventh street, Borough of Manhattan, who was 21 years old on May 11 last, and who consequently cast his first vote at the last election.

John L. Moore, 173 West Eighty-first street, who is president of the Moore Electric Company.

William J. Stewart, 246 West Forty-seventh street, a contractor and builder.

Herman Orloff, 634 McDonough street, Brooklyn, head of the firm of Orloff, Inc., custom tailors, 1306 Broadway.

James Bradley, 448 Amsterdam avenue, Borough of Manhattan, president of the Packard Times Square Auto Company.

Thomas J. McQuade, Jr., 420 West Forty-fifth street, Borough of Manhattan, who became of age last year, and consequently has just attained his rights as a voter under the constitution.

Dr. William J. Stewart, 236 West Twenty-third street, who has resided in the Chelsea district of New York City for over fifty years.

Joseph Nordenschild, 12 Park place, Brooklyn, broker, with offices at 29 Broadway.

Herman W. Meyer, 465 West Forty-seventh street, president of the Meyer Dyeing and Printing Company, and vice-president of the A. H. McRae Company, druggists.

Explaining the attitude of his clients, attorney Johnston said:

"In view of the fact that it has been widely stated that a successful attack upon the apportionment act would mean a knock-out blow for the Hart-Agnew bills, I might at the same time say that some of the petitioners who have joined with William S. Reynolds, principal petitioner, are former residents of this state and consequently on other legislation which will follow the success of this action."

PARI-MUTUELS DECREASE BETTING.

One would be led to believe that an enormous sum of money is wagered daily at a race track. If one would have said that $100,000 a day found its way into the pool box during the meeting just closed at Latonia he would have found lots of people who were willing to believe the story. There might have been a lot of money wagered in the days of the bookmaker, but nowadays with the pari-mutuels as the only means of speculation there is a far different story. A shining example was Saturday a week ago. There was easily 4,000 people at the track, and the total amount of money wagered was a few dollars over $58,000. This divided by 4,000 would make less than $15 for each person, which is less than $2.50 for each one to a race.

The spooks that awful gambling tales that the reformers have spread about race tracks. There is not the shadow of a doubt that pari-mutuels have done more to make racing a clean sport than any other one thing. The foreign method of betting has also made the sport a piker's game. There is no incentive to bet big money, and if this system of speculation is maintained the racing of the future will be strictly on the lines of true sport. All the sentiment in the sport will be brought back, and incidentally there will be a big cut in the revenue up to the sport to the highest notch to make the gate pay the way.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

CANADIAN DERBY CANDIDATE AT WORK.

Raymond Dale's Kel d'Or, the only Canadian-bred horse ever entered for the Epsom Derby, is doing well in his preparation by the noted English trainer, Sam Darling, at Beckenhampton, in Wiltshire. The daily reports show him doing steady work at five furlongs in company with Redcan, Sweet Memories, Gallego, Housing Pigeon and others of Darling's lot. Kel d'Or has never started and it may be that his first appearance under colors will be at Epsom next May. Kel d'Or was bred by Mr. Dale at South of the Golden Dawn mare Drowsy. Kelston was a son of Longfellow, and his dam, Annette, won for Mr. Boyle the last hurdle race that was run at Woodbine.

COMEDY KING'S MELBOURNE CUP

Australia's greatest race was run over the splendid Flemington track, near Melbourne, November 1, and London Sporting Life furnishes the following details:

Melbourne Cup (a handicap sweepstakes), of $150 each, with $30,000 added and a trophy value of $500; 2 miles.

S. Green's blk. or br. c. 3, Comedy King, by Persimmon—Tragedy Queen, 109 1
P. & W. Mitchell's ch. h. 5, Trafalgar, 128 2
Hon. A. Wynne's br. f. 4, Apple Pie, 103 3

Also ran: Alawa, Pendil, Maltine, Flavinus, Eric, Post Town, Kerlie, Lord Nolan, Artillerie, Sequarion, Lord Tuck, Britain, Olivaster, Tanami, Son of a Gun, Nuwarra Eliya, Mindful, Flavian, Mutilator, Prize Fighter, Balgown, Carl Dour, Danau, Isothermal, Matouree, Idyll and Kira.

Betting: 10 to 1 against Comedy King, 4 to 1 against Trafalgar, and 16 to 1 against Apple Pie. The race: Passing the stand Mindful and Kerlie led, with the remainder of the field close up. At the entrance to the straight Alawa and Apple Pie, almost level, were leading, but at the distance Comedy King dashed to the front, followed by Trafalgar, and a magnificent struggle to the post ended in a victory for Comedy King by a short neck; two lengths separated second and third. Time, 3:27 1/2.

Comedy King was bred by J. Simons Harrison at the Cottingham Stud. The colt came up for sale with his dam, Tragedy Queen, at the Newmarket first July sales in 1907, and the pair were knocked down to their present owner for $8,500. Mr. Green gave the colt every chance to develop his qualities, and he has grown into a fine type of thoroughbred. Comedy King's first race was in the Standish Handicap at Flemington last New Year's Day. He was not quite in racing trim and did not show up, but his next appearance was a successful one. This was in the Caulfield Futurity Stakes, seven furlongs, run at the V. A. T. C. autumn meeting. Comedy King had all the allowance and only had ninety-one pounds up, while Maltine, which ran second to him, had, with her twenty-pound penalty, 144 pounds to carry. Comedy King had proved on the track that he could gallop and he started favorite and won nicely by a length in 1:27 1/2, record time for the event.

With 109 pounds up, he was, in a field of thirty-one, made favorite for the Newmarket Handicap, but he did not quite run up to expectations, as he could, at the finish, get no nearer than fifth to Mala, 123 pounds. Comedy King was then put by, and did not reappear in public until he ran the other day in the Heathcote Handicap, one mile and a furlong, at Caulfield. He had 119 pounds up and was beaten a neck by another imported horse, Eye Glass. Those who saw the race were agreed that Comedy King was unlucky to lose.

LATONIA IS ALREADY DESERTED.

Exodus of Horses to Winter Racing Points Leaves Few at Covington Course.

Cincinnati, O., November 21.—Latonia track now presents a deserted appearance in contrast to the bustle of the past month. Sunday afternoon the big special for Jackson, consisting of sixteen horse cars, two sleepers and two day coaches, departed from Latonia and will land the horsemen and their stock at the Florida metropolis tomorrow night. The Pensacola special got away today and will reach its destination tomorrow night.

Rumors were circulated yesterday that Tom Shaw dropped $15,000 during his brief sojourn at the Latonia track, lasting a little over a week. He departed Saturday night for his home in New Orleans. His brother, H. L. Shaw, who has been campaigning Jack Aikin for Barney Schreiber, went with him. Both will probably go to California after a brief rest in the Crescent City, where they will visit relatives. Among the biggest winners were E. R. Bradley and John Fay. The latter, it is said, won many good-sized bets. Mr. Bradley returned yesterday to his Idle Hour Farm at Lexington, where he will probably remain until time for his departure for Palm Beach, Fla. His extensive string of racers will be sent tomorrow to Juarez in charge of trainer William Hurley.

Eugene Elrod, who will have charge of the betting ring at Juarez, left last night via Chicago with a party numbering nearly thirty. They will arrive in El Paso Tuesday. Mr. Elrod announced that he had received many applications from bookmakers for positions in the Juarez betting ring and that the probabilities are that at least sixteen layers will go business on the opening day.

Gossip as to the H. G. Bedwell case is to the effect that the horses of the blacklisted turfman will be restored to good standing for sale purposes at the probabilities are that at least sixteen layers will go business on the opening day. Judge Price, who put the ban on the racers, will not interpose any objections to their reinstatement should the commission see fit to restore them to good standing. He likewise will not recommend their re-instatement.

R. H. Harris, who will train the horses owned by Irving H. Wheatcroft, left yesterday for a brief visit to his farm in Shelbyville County, Missouri, before going to Juarez to take up his duties. He expects to go along slowly with the much-touted King Broomstick. If the Wheatcroft yearlings show the form expected of them they will be shipped to New York after the Juarez meeting and engage in early stake racing on the metropolitan tracks.

NASH TURNER'S AFFECTION FOR HORSE.

A touching incident, illustrating the love of a racing man for his horse, is related by the Auto. At Auteuil on Thursday, Nash Turner, the well-known American trainer-jockey, was riding his own horse, Pillard, in a steeplechase. At the water jump in front of the stands the horse jumped short and came down so badly that he broke his back. The official veterinary surgeon with the stewards hastened to the spot, and as it was found to be impossible to lift the animal, which was suffering great pain, it was resolved to destroy it humanely on the spot. Nash Turner, still dazed with the shock of his fall, though unharmed, took the head of his faithful horse in his arms, and, after a long last kiss on its soft muzzle, turned away so as not to see the last act, while two big tears rolled down his cheeks.—Paris edition New York Herald.

NUMEROUS ARRIVALS AT MONCIEF.

Florida City Filling Up for Thursday's Opening—Weights for Handicap Announced.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 21.—Since Saturday there has been a great influx of turfmen here, preparatory to the opening of the Moncief Park winter meeting on Thursday.

Moncief Park is now in perfect condition for Thursday's opening, when it is expected that the largest crowd that ever patronized a southern course will be in attendance. Many parties from nearby Florida towns are coming here to spend the day, with Moncief Park as the special attraction. Those who are in a position to know estimate that close to 8,000 people will witness the running of the Thanksgiving Handicap, to be run as the fourth and carded feature of the opening day races.

The Jacksonville people are likely to turn out as never before, already many social parties having been made up for the afternoon. It is safe to predict that the large grandstand, with its many boxes, will be crowded to its capacity when the bugle sounds for the starting of the first race of the afternoon's program.

Weights for the Thanksgiving Handicap have been announced as follows:

Horse.	A. Wt.	Horse.	A. Wt.
Donald Macdonald..	4 124	Milton B.....	3 107
Guy Fisher.....	4 119	Friend Harry.....	4 105

Racquet.....	4 109	Dr. Holzberg.....	4 100
John Reardon.....	3 109	Great Heavens.....	4 98
Tom Hayward.....	4 109	Rosseaux.....	3 92

The nominations for the Tropical Selling Stakes, three-quarters of a mile, to be run March 8, give a good line on the material available for three-year-old races here after January. They are as follows:

Almora.	Givotte.	Melvor.
Allan Winter.	Gold Oak.	Mindinette.

ADAM YEARLINGS SHIPPED TO ENGLAND.

New York, November 21.—The Minnetonka, of the Atlantic Transport Line, which sailed for England Saturday, carried three yearlings which will be offered at the December Newmarket sales. The trio are by the French stallion, Adam, and are out of well-bred mares.

H. C. Brown, a well-known Wall street banker, sent a chestnut colt out of the Hindoo mare Nadavis, and a brown filly out of Privateer, by Meddler. Francis Bishop, who was one of the owners of the Newcastle Stable, shipped a chestnut colt out of the Hanover mare Honespun. This youngster is a half-brother to The Squire, Countess, New Castle and others. Honespun's sister, Handsun, is the dam of Tanya and Tangle. The former, racing under the colors of Harry Payne Whitney, won the Hopeful, Spinaway, National Stallion and Belmont Stakes.

SEA CLIFF AGAIN IN FORM

WHITNEY CASTOFF WINS CUNARD HANDICAP AT OAKLAND IN DECISIVE STYLE.

Jockey Thomas Incapacitated for Riding by Accident—Several Horses Break from Control of Their Riders and Run Away Before Start.

San Francisco, Cal., November 21.—Sea Cliff, showing improvement with a light impost, won the Cunard Handicap in decisive style at Oakland today. Jim Bascy and Jack Paine were most fancied for the race, which was a three-quarters of a mile sprint. Jim Bascy made most of the pace, but in the stretch Sea Cliff assumed the lead. Enfield was third and Jack Paine failed to cut much figure.

Jockey A. Thomas will be out of the saddle for at least a week, owing to a sprained ankle sustained when Red Klaw reared and fell on him while at the post for the first race. The boy's mounts for the afternoon were canceled in consequence, Vandusen being substituted on Red Klaw. After further delay at the post all the youngsters broke fairly well with the exception of Tim Judge, the favorite.

There were other delays, due to horses running away before the start. Ilex broke away while at the post in the second race, and in the last race El Paisano circled the course three times before the start.

El Molino, a 30 to 1 chance, proved a surprise in the second by winning from Oswald B., on which the saddle slipped.

Jockey Scoville arrived today from Latonia. Charles W. Clark of the El Palomar Stable has secured a contract on Jockey Selden.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Guy Garner and G. Archibald, who are both riding at Oakland, divided the jockey honors of last week, each with eight winning mounts. Garner has again drawn into a comfortable lead over C. H. Shilling for the honors of the year, and Shilling, who has been absent from the saddle since the close of racing at Pimlico, may now find it difficult to overtake Garner before the year ends. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

C. K. B., Memphis, Tenn. The bet on Carew lost. C. L. H., Pittsburg, Pa. The parlay lost through Royal Roper.

J. M., Pittsburg, Pa. Romp was well backed to show at the track.

Henry L., Chicago. On what day's racing was the Lad of Langden-Prince Gal parlay made?

E. G. R., Detroit, Mich. The races in the combination are selected by the manager of the betting ring and posted publicly.

R. McW., Toronto, Ont. If no race was named, the bet went on the first race in which The Nigger started and you should have been paid $22.50.

W. W. W., Dayton, O. Only the horses named in a parlay have anything to do with its decision. Your parlay was void as to John Reardon and stood on the others.

Jas. S., Detroit, Mich. In the mutuels when there is show betting on one horse, there is show betting on all. As the favorite, more tickets to show were sold on Bonnie Kelso than on any other horse in the race.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., November 21.—The racing stables of Walter Grater, John T. Ireland, John Rodegag and J. P. Ross returned to Lexington from Latonia this morning. The stable of Jack Baker came yesterday.

E. R. Bradley arrived from Chicago yesterday and will remain at Idle Hour Farm for a couple of weeks.

J. W. May left here this morning for Jacksonville. His horses were shipped from Latonia.

Pool auctioneer John McLaughlin returned from Latonia yesterday. He may go to Jacksonville to make book after a fortnight's rest.

George C. Graddy, a prominent farmer and breeder of Woodford County, and proprietor of the Daytona Stock Farm, died suddenly last week of heart disease at his home in Versailles, Ky. He owned the thoroughbred stallion Titmouse.

W. O. B., Macdonough, of California, will send his Futurity winner Ormondale to John S. Barbee's Glenhelen Stud to make the season of 1911. The horse will arrive here in December.

LEGALIZES ONLY PARI-MUTUEL BETTING.

Recent legislation in the Argentine Republic, as in New Zealand, limits turf speculation to the totalizator, punishing every other kind of betting with six months' imprisonment. Investments in the totalizator can only be indulged in on the course, and the new law. A commission of the penal clauses of the investments registered at the totalizator will be made, and after deduction of the necessary expense fund of the Jockey Club, one-fourth to the municipality of the locality, and the balance to the state government.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Trainer F. M. Taylor will winter H. C. Hallenbeck's Fauntleroy at Sheephead Bay.
James McCue, one of betting manager George H. Smith's assistants, died suddenly of heart failure last week at Oakland.

The track officials at Oakland are doing their utmost to prevent the flashing of results from the enclosure to a nearby tower erected by poolroom service men.

The horses of S. A. Clifton and R. D. Williams are reported to be in good condition at Moncrief Park, Jacksonville, where they have been quarantined since the close of Canadian racing.

Jockey Gaudel was scheduled to accompany James McCarthy to Chile. Mr. McCarthy sailed from San Francisco Sunday for that South American country with the horses he recently purchased in Kentucky.

W. H. Fizer shipped a carload of twelve horses, including Boca Grande and Eye White, to Jacksonville by express, and his remaining six horses went with George Land's shipment from Latonia on the special.

It is likely that the veteran and consistent Ed Hall has carried colors in a race for the last time this season. The old campaigner came out of his recent race at Oakland in bad shape. He has broken down in one of his front legs.

Former trainer William E. Phillips, of George C. Bennett and English Lad note, dropped into Latonia Saturday from his farm near Greenville, Ill., to see an afternoon's racing. Mr. Phillips will winter in Illinois. He does not own a thoroughbred at present and is out of racing.

John Walters will winter his string at Louisville, including his 1911 Kentucky Derby candidate, McIsaac. He probably will, on account of its convenience to the city, select Churchill Downs as his winter quarters. He thinks he has as good a Derby prospect in McIsaac as there is in training.

Frederick Johnson of New York was a visitor to Latonia Saturday, the guest of his trainer, J. W. May. He owns Miss Nettle and some yearlings in trainer May's big string. Four of the yearlings were worked Saturday morning. One pair went a quarter in 25, running both eighth and nine, while the other pair did better, going the quarter in 25, after running the first eighth in 12.

NO MORE LEGISLATION IN CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., November 21.—According to an Ottawa dispatch, H. H. Miller, M. P. for South Grey, father of the measure governing race course betting, states that there will be no legislation on the subject at this session of the Canadian Parliament. He says that he is not his intention to introduce any. When he brought in the bill last session in the form in which it passed the House of Commons, Mr. Miller said that it would have to be given a fair trial before he would be found dealing with the subject again.

STATISTICS OF THE JAMESTOWN MEETING.

The fall meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club, which opened at Norfolk, Va., November 1 and came to a close November 19, embraced seventeen racing days, during which 106 races were decided and $32,225 distributed in purses, there being no stakes. Winner—B. g. by The Friar—Lingerie (trained by F. Prior).
 Went to post at 1:43. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
 FATHER STAFFORD ran in close pursuit of the leaders from the start and, in a game finish, won in the final stride. LORD OF THE FOREST closed a gap steadily and, finishing fast, would have won in another day's stride. MILPITAS set the pace fast to the stretch, but quit in the deciding drive. EL PAISANO ran away three miles before the start. HOMER RUN ran well, but tired in the stretch. BILLY MYER failed to stay. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
 Scratched—92853 No Quarter, 112; 92835 Tony Faust, 115; 92853 Darrington, 115.
